Testimonials

“With his comprehensive understanding of the script, he showed the importance of fresh ideas, a careful observation of modern theatre production, a feeling for dramaturgy and a suggestive yet respectful attitude towards the actors.” Best director award – The Pillowman

“Hats off to the director for his audacity and courage. Firstly, in the choice of the script, then in the adaptation, and also for that courage that many directors lose over the years: a lot of trust and collaboration with the actors.” Best director award – Vanya
